4 Days Open, And 4 New Cases!

We was Covid FREE, however due to financial circumstances we needed to open the borders once again to get the economy rolling as per our government, but in 4 days of being open we got 4 new positive cases of the Corona Virus, and we did not even open the border yet for America that has a large surge of new cases. July 10th we will open the borders for America, it's plain to see that we will not get rid of the Corona Virus, we just will have to live around it like the Flu, so please take all precautions in everything you do to keep yourself and your family safe.

Light(poem)

Light creates reflection,

So we can face the mirror on the wall,

We run away when it exposes our hypocrisy but we seek it when we fall,

The same light that we use to show our strengths,

Is the same light we run away from when it's exposing our flaws,

The light that forces us to look within, at our bruises and our scars,

At our lack of self control, which keeps us in cycles,

At our lack of preparation, which delay our season,

At our lack of maturity, which turns opportunities of growth into moments of agony,

It is that light that we need,

In order to truly grow

For He is the way, the truth and the light,

And He'll gracefully walk you to it
